

FOR YOUR PEOPLE

FAMILY GUIDE | READ ONCE, THEN USE

WHAT THIS IS

A way to say the family things we sometimes leave unsaid. Notice care, humor or a thoughtful habit. Family can be chosen, related, nearby or far away.

HOW TO ISSUE ONE

1
NOTICE

Look for a real act of care, effort or fun that you appreciated.

2
MARK

Choose one or two compliments. A shared detail makes it personal.

3
TEAR + HAND OVER

Detach the full ticket and give it to them when you have their attention.

4
SAY THE THANK-YOU

Name what mattered to you. Keep comparisons with other relatives out of it.

5
LET THEM KEEP IT

The ticket is theirs, with no chore, favor or hug expected in return.

6
SHARE, OPTIONAL

They may detach the response slip, fold or tear one number, and return it.

APPRECIATION HAS NO STRINGS.

Give the ticket for something already appreciated. Do not use it to settle an argument, assign a job or pressure someone to forgive. A returned slip is optional, and being family never replaces consent to touch.

LET IT BE THEIR MOMENT.

A quiet thank-you counts. Ask before sharing their ticket or reaction with relatives or online.

SIDE 2/16 | COVER STOCK | CUTOUT 3.5 x 8.75 inches

Measure line: exactly 1 inch / 25.4 mm. Keep sides 2 and 4 inverted.

Print covers: 1,2,15,16. Print interiors: 3-14. Reassemble in side order; top binding.

FOR YOUR PEOPLE | KEEP THIS LEAF

SAY THE PART YOU MEAN

FAMILY OPENERS | USE YOUR OWN VOICE

1 I noticed the way you looked after everyone.

2 You do this a lot, and I don't say thanks enough.

3 That was a very you way to make us laugh.

4 I was thinking about that thing you did for me.

5 This is for a small thing that mattered.

6 I wanted you to have this in writing.

FOLLOW-UP LINES

- Nothing to do in return. I just mean it.
- That reminded me of another good memory.
- We can leave it at thank-you.
- If you feel like it, choose a little moment for us.

FAMILIAR DOES NOT MEAN AUTOMATIC

Do not assume they already know you appreciate them. A specific thank-you can stand on its own without teasing, advice or a lesson attached.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Use a detail that belongs to this person. Skip comparisons and excluding jokes.

WHAT COUNTS AS SUCCESS?

Someone heard what you appreciate about them. A family story, a laugh or a game is a bonus, not proof that the thank-you worked.

NO FAMILY SCOREKEEPING

No comparisons, chores owed or jokes at someone's expense. Give each person room to accept appreciation in their own way.

DO NOT LEAVE THE GOOD UNSAID.

Tell your people what you appreciate, wherever they are.
